

JOSEPH PINA

PAWTUCKET, R.I. —

Joseph "John" Pina, 67, of 150 Dartmouth St. died Thursday in Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of the late Lillian (Buttie) Pina.

Born in Milford, Mass., he was a son of the late Germano and Emilia (Amara) Pina. He had lived in Pawtucket for 40 years.

He was a weaver and was employed in various mills in the Blackstone Valley. He also was a bartender and had worked in various taverns. He was a World War II Navy veteran.

He leaves a daughter, Gloria Narkawich of Pawtucket; a stepdaughter, Gladys Jensen of Sacramento, Calif.; two stepsons, Jerry and Maurice Buttie, both of Pawtucket; four brothers, Jose Pina of Taunton, Pete Pina and Augustino Nunes, both of Cumberland and Angelo Nunes of Pawtucket; two sisters, Connie Rochas of Brazil and Carmela Meyer of New Jersey; and seven grandchildren.

TG 7/24/83