

JOHN PLACE

John F. Place, 60, of 9 Chester Ave., who worked 21 years as a security guard at Reed and Barton, died Saturday at Morton Hospital. He was the husband of Grace V. (Travis) Place.

Born in North Dighton, son of the late Frank and Olive (Dary) Place, he was educated in Taunton schools and lived most of his life in Taunton.

Before his employment at Reed and Barton, he was a warehouseman for Western Auto. He was a communicant of Immaculate Conception Church.

In addition to his wife, he leaves three sons, Bradford Place of North Dighton, Stuart Place of Taunton, and F. Brown Place of North Attleboro; three daughters, Mrs. David W. (Janet) Smith of Taunton, Mrs. Richard C. (Marilyn) Adams of Killingly, Conn., and Christine A. Place of Taunton.

He also leaves three granddaughters, one grandson, and several nieces and nephews.

JD 10/3/83

Among those surviving John F. Place, 60, of 9 Chester Ave., are three brothers, Bradford Place of North Dighton, Stuart Place of Taunton, and F. Bowen Place of North Attleboro. They were incorrectly listed as sons in yesterday's paper.