

23 (3)
JOAQUIN PRADO

Joaquin Prado, 78, of 119 Plain St., husband of Emilia (Folcik) Prado, died Sunday afternoon shortly after arrival at Morton Hospital.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Joaquin and Frances (George) Prado.

He was employed at the Princess House, Hampshire Division, for the past two years. A die cutter by trade, he was employed for many years at Reed and Barton Silversmiths, also at Dieges and Clust Ring Manufacturers of Providence, R.I., and for some time at Lee and Woodbine of Attleboro.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Antone (Winifred) Loretto, Mrs. Robert (Arlene) Garcia, Mrs. Joseph (Jacqueline) Lazarz, all of Taunton; one brother, Ernest Prado of Taunton; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Gadry, Mrs. Louis (Julia) Vaz, both of East Taunton, and several nieces and nephews.

2/22/83 TC