

Manuel R. Ramos 9/24/88

NEW BEDFORD — Manuel R. Ramos, 84, of 231 Middle St. died at home yesterday after a brief illness. He was the husband of Angela (Piva) Ramos.

He was born in Fayal, Azores, and lived in New Bedford for 19 years. He was a communicant of St. Lawrence Church and was employed by the former Studebaker Co. in Indiana for 42 years as a machinist until retiring in 1961.

Mr. Ramos was a member of the Senior Citizens of Bedford Towers.

Survivors include his widow; three brothers, Joseph R. of South Bend, Ind., Sergio R. of New Bedford and Hendrix R. of Brazil; and a sister, Felomana Silva of Fayal.

Arrangements are by the Saunders Funeral Home, 495 Park St.