FREDE REBELLO

HYANNIS — Fred E. Rebello, of 306 Forest St., North Dighton, former civil defense director for the town of Dighton, died Monday at Whitehall Manor Nursing Home after a lengthy illness. He was 65.

The husband of Mary (Vincent) Rebello, he was employed for many years as a foreman at the Paul A. Dever State School until retiring in 1957.

He was a past commander of the Raposa-Knott Post No. 2094, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of North Dighton. Rebello was an honorary member of the Taunton Yacht Club.

A U.S. Navy veteran of World War Two and the Korean War, he served as a carpenter's mate first class for the Seabees.

Born in Somerset, son of the late Manuel and Mary (Ferry) Rebello, he was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church, North Dighton.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Emerson (Elizabeth) Kearns of North Dighton; two brothers, Manuel and Joseph Rebello of Providence, R.I.; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Pidone of Miami, Fla., Mrs. Domingoes (Lydia) Soares of Somerset, and Mrs. Bertha Martone and Mrs. Madeline Miguel, both of Providence; two grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.
