

60184-TG
JOHN REBELLO

John Rebello, 81, of 9 Blinn's Court, husband of Mary I. (Medeiros) Rebello, died Monday morning at Morton Hospital after being stricken at his home.

D Born in St. Michael, Azores, he was a son of the late John and Antoinette (Motta) Rebello. He had been a resident of Taunton for the past 75 years.

For 15 years he had been a machine operator at the New Jersey Rubber Co. before retiring in 1969. He had previously worked at the former Glenwood Range Co. for 25 years.

A communicant of St. Anthony's Church, he was a member of the St. Peter's Society, the Portuguese-American Civic Club, the Lucky Senior Citizens Club and the Taunton Council on Aging.

In addition to his wife he leaves a sister, Mary Rebello of Taunton; two brothers, Joseph Rebello and Antone Rebello, both of Taunton; and several nieces and nephews.