

ALBERT J. REI

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — Albert J. Rei, a former resident of Little Pond County Road, Cumberland, R.I., died Saturday at San Francisco General Hospital, where he had been a patient for three days. He was 28.

Before moving to the West Coast, he had been employed as a bridge worker for five years by the state Department of Transportation.

He was born in Pawtucket, R.I., son of Joao E. and Leontina (Miguel) Rei of Cumberland.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a son, Albert Rei of Pawtucket; a brother, John Rei of Cumberland; and several relatives and friends in Massachusetts.
