

ANNA ROSE 11/23/81

Anna J. (Marston) Rose, 70, of 17 Long Avenue, co-owner of Rose Tobacco Company, died suddenly Sunday at Morton Hospital. She was the wife of Alfred S. "Mike" Rose.

She was associated with Rose Tobacco from its founding in 1951 until she retired in 1979.

She was past president of the Taunton Gaelic Society, and was a member of the Weir Senior Citizens and the Senior Sweethearts. She was a communicant of Immaculate Conception Church, where she was a member of the Women's Guild.

Born in Taunton and educated at St. Mary's Schools, she was the daughter of the late Jason and Annie (Skelly) Marston.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Alfred F. Rose of Attleboro and a daughter, Mrs. Colin J. (Norma A.) Menzies of Taunton.

She is also survived by two brothers, Joseph L. Marston of Ocala, Fla. and Edward F. Marston of Raynham, and a sister, Mrs. Francis J. (Alice V.) Murphy of Taunton, as well as five grandchildren, one great-granddaughter and several nephews and nieces.
