

Longtime resident, retired builder Frank E. Rose <sup>California</sup>

Frank E. Rose
Services will be held Thursday for Frank E. Rose, retired San Jose construction supervisor who died of a heart attack Monday at the age of 82.

Rose was a native of Moraga, coming to San Jose some 60 years ago. He retired in 1965 after 40 years working for various construction firms, according to his son, Lawrence Rose, of Santa Cruz.

Since then he has divided his time between his home in East San Jose and Santa Cruz, where he was secretary-treasurer of Casitas Del Mar.

Besides his son, Rose leaves his wife, Lena; a daughter, Carol Smith of Lafayette; a brother and sister, Clarence Rose and Marie Rose of San Jose, and four grandchildren. Another brother, the Rev. Manuel F. Rose, died in 1946.

The Rosary will be recited tonight at 7 in Mission Chapel of Rancadore and Alameda. Funeral Mass will be said at St. John Vianney Church Thursday at 11 a.m.

Contributions to the Santa Clara County Heart Association are preferred by the family.
