

4/12/84

JOHN ROSE

FALL RIVER — John F. Rose, 54, of 74 Hortonville Road, Swansea, formerly of Dighton, husband of Eleanor A. (Conboy) Rose, died Wednesday at the Rose Hawthorne Lathrop Home following a long illness.

Born and educated in Dighton, a son of Anna (Rose) Rose, and the late Thomas Rose, he was a resident of Swansea for the past 33 years and was a communicant of Our Lady of Fatima Church.

For the past 23 years he was a chemical and rubber mixer at the Globe Manufacturing Co., Fall River.

In addition to his wife and mother, of Dighton, he leaves a son, John M. Rose of Swansea; five daughters, Mrs. Ronald (Donna) Plante of North Kingstown, R.I., Mrs. James (Deborah) Moran, Second Lt. Patricia Rose, USAF, Nancy Rose and Kimberley Rose, all of Swansea.

Also, two brothers, Thomas Rose and Robert Rose, both of Dighton; two sisters, Mrs. John (Mary Ann) Simbrom of Somerset and Elizabeth Rose of Dighton; two grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.