

ROSE — In Washington, D.C., Aug. 18, Mary (Silveira), 85 years, widow of Joseph Rose of 700 Seventh St., West Washington, D.C. and formerly 45 Columbia St. Funeral from the Aubertine Funeral Home, 129 Allen St., Monday at 9 a.m. Funeral Mass at St. John the Baptist Church at 10 a.m. Visiting hours Sunday only, 2-4 and 7-9.

ROSE — In Washington, D.C., Aug. 18, Mary (Silveira), 85 years, widow of Joseph Rose of 700 Seventh St., West Washington, D.C. and formerly 45 Columbia St. Funeral from the Aubertine Funeral Home, 129 Allen St., Monday at 9 a.m. Funeral Mass at St. John the Baptist Church at 10 a.m. Visiting hours 2-4 and 7-9.

Mary Rose 20 Aug 83

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Mary (Silveira) Rose, 85, of 700 7th St. West, Washington, D.C., formerly of 45 Columbia St., New Bedford, died Thursday at George Washington University Hospital after a long illness. She was the widow of Joseph P. Rose.

She was born in Pico, Azores, and came to this country 71 years ago, living the last 20 years in Washington and New Bedford. She was a communicant of St. John the Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Edward of Washington and Louis of University City Miss.; six sisters, Mary S. Perry of New Bedford, Christino Lino of Elk Grove, Calif., Estefania Pimental of Oakdale, Calif., Rose Queresmaof of Pismo, Calif., and Felisabella Serpa and Isabella Oliveira, both of Pico, Azores; one brother, Manuel Silveira, also of Pico, Azores; and three grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Aubertine Funeral Home, 129 Allen St., New Bedford.