

FRANCES M. SILVA
BOSTON — Frances M. (Perry) Silva, 84, of 3 Gallagher Drive, Randolph, co-owner of the former Weir Cash Market, died Sunday morning at Carney Hospital, Boston. She was the wife of the late Joseph C. Silva Jr.

Born in New Bedford, she was a daughter of the late Augusto and Maria (Medeiros) Perry. She was a resident of Taunton for most of her life and was the co-owner and bookkeeper for the former market. She was also a former communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

She resided with her daughter, Mrs. Tage (Mary) Gorm Hansen in Randolph for the past six years and was a member of St. Bernadettes Church in Randolph.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Hansen; and two sons, John J. Silva of 6/11/81

New York City, and Joseph C. Silva 3d of Taunton. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mary Travers of Fairhaven and three grandchildren.

JOSEPH ANDRADE

Joseph Cabral Andrade, 68, of 22 Berkley St., a retired machine operator, died Sunday afternoon at Morton Hospital shortly after arrival. He was the husband of Filomena (Raposa) Andrade.

Born in Santa Maria, Azores, he was a son of the late Joaquin and Mary (Cabral) Andrade. A communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Andrade resided in Taunton for the past 10 years.

He was employed as a machine operator for the Lucey Shoe Company of Bridgewater for many years until his retirement three years ago.

Beside his wife, he is survived by two sons, Antonio R. Andrade of St. Michael, Azores and Jose R. Andrade of Taunton.

He also leaves four brothers, Jack Andre Jr. of Taunton, Luis DeAndrade, Manuel Andrade and Albino Andrade, all of Bridgewater. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Zacharias (Maria) Amaral of Bridgewater, six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.