

MARY J. SILVA 11/21/81

Mary J. (Ferris) Silva, 71, of 150 Oak Street, a communicant of St. Joseph's Church, died Saturday night at Sturdy Memorial Hospital in Attleboro, shortly after her arrival. She was the wife of the late Antonio L. Silva.

Born in Taunton, she was a daughter of the late Louis J. and Angelina (Thomas) Ferris.

A housewife for most of her life, she was also employed for several years at Swank Inc., Attleboro and was a member of the Westside Seniors and the Golden Agers.

She is survived by three sons, James A., Francis P. and Robert A. Silva all of Taunton and two daughters, Mrs. Delores Bozeman of Philipsburg, N.J. and Mrs. John (Patricia) Pellitier of Attleboro.

She also leaves five brothers, Manuel, Joseph, Sebastian, Francis and Antone Ferris all of Taunton and five sisters, Mrs. Margaret Medeiros, Mrs. Lionel (Christine) Rose, Mrs. Edward (Alice) Perry, Mrs. Arnold (Celia) Medeiros and Mrs. Joseph (Lillian) Pacheco all of Taunton, 14 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.