

Mariana Silva

5/24/81

Mariana (Ventura) Silva, 82, of 4 Diman St., New Bedford, died yesterday after a brief illness. She was the widow of Jose Duarte Silva.

She was born on Saint Michael, the Azores, but lived in New Bedford for 60 years, and was a communicant of Our Lady of Immaculate Conception Church in the city.

Survivors include three sons Joseph S. and Angelo S., both of New Bedford, and Manuel S. of California; a daughter, Lidia Oliveira of New Bedford; and a sister, Conceicao Amaral of Saint Michael; nine children and six great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Baylies Square Funeral Home, 512 No. Front St. in New Bedford.

Elizabeth Mentipty

Elizabeth (Couza) Mentipty, 51, of New Bedford died Friday after a brief illness. She was the wife of James G. Mentipty.

She was born in New Bedford and lived most of her life in the city. She was a communicant of Holy Name Church, New Bedford.

She was a veteran of the Korean War, and the only female member of Private A. Poirier Post 3260 in New Bedford.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Jacqueline Lewis of Cape Coral, Fla.; a brother, Everett Couza of New Bedford; and three grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Austin-Carney Funeral Home, 547 County St. in New Bedford.

John Correia

5/24/81

John Correia, 61, of Richfield Street, New Bedford, died yesterday after a brief illness. He was the husband of Elaine (Cardoza).

He was a lifelong city resident and a communicant of Saint John the Baptist Church.

He worked as a driver and warehouseman for McKesson Liquor Co.

He was a member of Teamsters' Local 25 in Norwood and formerly belonged to Teamsters' Local 59 of New Bedford.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, John Jr. and Kenneth J., both of New Bedford; two sisters, Mary Furtado and Dorothy Correia, both of New Bedford; and one grandchild.

Arrangements are by the Perry Funeral Home, 111 Dartmouth St., New Bedford.