

T G 11/29/87

MANUEL P. ALMEIDA

Manuel P. "Sticky" Almeida, 73, husband of Alice F. (Morley) Almeida of 165 Winthrop St. and formerly of Russell Street, died shortly after arrival Friday at Morton Hospital.

He was a salesman for many years for United Liquors of Fairhaven and retired a few years ago. Prior to that employment, he worked as a salesman for Central Radio in Taunton for several years.

He was born in North Dighton, son of the late Adelino and Amelia (Paulo) Almeida.

Surviving are his wife; one son, Robert M. Almeida of Taunton; a daughter, Louise Riendeau of Taunton; a granddaughter, Angela Almeida of Taunton; three stepsons; one stepdaughter; and several nieces and nephews.

and attended St. Mary's grammar and high schools. She had been employed as a clerk at Mulhern's Pharmacy.

She was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church. She was daughter of the late Edward and Myrtle E. (Crowley) Hanna.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Theodore L. Peters Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. Scott (Charlene A.) Tachera of San Jose, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Dorothea Cordeiro of Taunton; three brothers, Edward J. Hanna of Keaakaha, Hawaii, William F. Hanna of South Brunswick, N.J. and John J. Hanna of Falsom, Calif.; and several nieces and nephews.

He was a communicant of the Sacred Heart Church.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. William (Blanche) Treweek of Taunton, four grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

MANUEL SILVIA

Manuel A. Silvia, 95, of 545 Burt St., Taunton died Saturday morning at Goddard Memorial Hospital in Stoughton following a long illness. He was the husband of the late Marie A. (Silvy) Silvia.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Antone and Leonora (Gracie) Silvia.

He was employed as a machine operator at the former Mount Hope Finishing Company in North Dighton for many years before going to work in the housekeeping department of Morton Hospital.

He retired 23 years ago at the age of 72.