JOSEPH SILVIA

Joseph Silvia of 110 Plain St., a local shoe repairman, was dead on arrival at Morton Hospital yesterday morning after being stricken while he was riding in a car with his son and daughter-in-law. He was 67.

A shoe repairman for 50 years, he owned and operated Joe's Shoe Store on West Water Street in Weir Village for many years.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, and was a member of Knights of Columbus, Msgr. James Coyle Council 82.

In addition to his wife, Elsie (Ferreira) Silvia, he leaves his son, Joseph Silvia Jr., and his daughter, Susan M. Silvia, all of Taunton.

He also leaves a brother, Alfred Silvia of Taunton, and a sister, Mrs. Albert (Elsie) Jette of North Attleboro, as well as three nephews, a niece, and several grandnieces and grandnephews.
