ATTLES

6/2/81

Born in St. Michael, Azores, she was a daughter of the late Marcolino and Ermalinda (Bertencute) Aguiar. She moved to Woonsocket at age 18.

From 1936 to 1962, Mr. and Mrs. Sousa owned two cafes, Sousa's on Sayles Street, Woonsocket and the Old Tap in Cumberland. The couple observed its 50th wedding anniversary in 1975.

Mrs. Sousa had also been employed as a spinner at the former Branch Worsted Co., North Smithfield for about 20 years.

Beside her husband, she is survived by one brother, José Aguiar of Attleboro, and a sister, Mrs. Luisa Narciso of Taunton.
