

JOHN J. SULLIVAN

John J. Sullivan, 74, of 183 High St., a distinguished Army veteran of World War II and a former semi-professional baseball player, died Saturday at Morton Hospital after a short illness. He was the husband of Beatrice B. (Botelho) Sullivan.

Born in Taunton, son of the late John J. and Celia A. (Donahue) Sullivan, he was a lifelong resident of this city. He was educated in St. Mary Schools and attended Bristol County Business College. He was a communicant of St. Mary's Church.

Sullivan was a member of the Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 57, and a recipient of the Purple Heart and The Distinguished Cross. He served three years in the Army and fought in the Battle of the Bulge with the ninth Armoured Division.

He was a former firefighter who retired from the Taunton Fire Department in 1949 after 20 years of service. He also worked 22 years with Union Liquors in New Bedford.

As a semi-professional baseball player for many years, he toured New England including the Boston Twilight League and the Cape Cod League. He was a resident golf-pro instructor at the Nite and Day golf course in Raynham.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Epp of Taunton and Mrs. Chester (Shirley) Rowell of Morristown, N.J.; two brothers, Edmund J. Sullivan of Taunton and James H. Sullivan, a former Clerk Magistrate of Attleboro Court; and several nieces and nephews. 9/24/84 JG

EDWARD J. MEDEIROS
