

Frank Sylvia 7-12-82

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Frank Sylvia, 86, of Sacramento, formerly of New Bedford, died Friday after a brief illness. He was the widower of Mary L. (Teves) Sylvia.

He died at a Sacramento hospital.

He was born in Dartmouth and lived in New Bedford most of his life. He had worked for 40 years at the former O'Connor Brothers Sand and Gravel Co., of New Bedford and was a gardener in Alameda, Calif. for 10 years.

Survivors include three sons, Frank Jr. of Dartmouth, John of Fairhaven and Charles of Sacramento; two daughters, Mary Weeks of Sacramento, Madeline Lutes of Virginia; two brothers, John of New Bedford and Edward of S. Dartmouth; a sister, Julia Silva of New Bedford; 21 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are being made in California.