

Obituaries

TEIXEIRA — In Marion, Oct. 3, Anthony, husband of Olive (Silvia) Teixeira of 897 Point Road. Funeral from the Stott Funeral Home, 332 Main St., Wareham on Thursday morning at 8. Funeral Mass at St. Rita Church, Marion, at 9. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Visiting hours Wednesday 2-4 and 7-9.

TEIXEIRA — In Marion, Oct. 3, Anthony, husband of Olive (Silvia) Teixeira of 897 Point Road. Funeral from the Stott Funeral Home, 332 Main St., Wareham on Thursday morning at 8. Funeral Mass at St. Rita Church, Marion, at 9. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Visiting hours 2-4 and 7-9.

Anthony Teixeira

MARION — Anthony Teixeira Jr., 58, of 897 Point Road, died unexpectedly Monday. He was the husband of Olive (Silvia) Teixeira.

He died at Tobey Hospital.

He was a lifelong town resident and attended Marion schools. He was a World War II Army veteran, employed by A.N.M. Asphalt Co. in Hyannis for a year, and a member of Post 9261, Veterans of Foreign Wars in Vineyard Haven. Mr. Teixeira was a communicant of St. Rita Church.

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Anthony P. and Bruce of Marion; three brothers, Domingo and Julio of Marion and Roy of Kingston; three sisters, Phyllis Loudon and Louise Barros of Marion and Catherine Barros of New Bedford; and seven grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Stott Funeral Home, 332 Main St., Wareham.