EDWARD TORRES
RAYNHAM

Edward H. Torres, 64, of 22 Charles St., died at home Saturday morning following a long illness. He was the husband of Mary (Victoria) Torres.

He had worked for many years as a dispatcher with the Watertown Arsenal and had retired in 1962 from P.S.P. publications, formerly of Taunton, now of Dighton. He was a communicant of St. Ann's Church and a member of the Raynham Senior Citizens Club.

He served as a corporal in the U.S. Army's 552d Anti-aircraft Battalion in Europe during World War Two and was a member of the Rapoza-Knott Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, Dighton.

Born in Fall River, he was the son of Mary Louise (Camara) Torres of North Dighton and the late Manuel P. Torres.

Survivors include his wife, her five sons, Edward H. of Dighton, James B., Ethel J., Robert S., Richard and all of Raynham; a daughter, Mrs. Ronald (Claire) of East Falmouth and grandchildren.
