

Rites for drowned city youth

2/17/82

A funeral mass will be held Thursday at 9 a.m. at St. Anthony's Church for James "Jamie" Travers, who drowned Monday in the Taunton River. The Municipal Council held a moment of silence for him last night during its regular meeting.

James, who turned 16 on Jan. 29, was a sophomore at Taunton High School and a communicant of St. Anthony's.

Born in Taunton, he was the only child of Mariano and Mary (Lima) Travers of 421 Richmond St. Besides his parents, he leaves a paternal grandmother, whose name is unavailable, and several aunts and uncles.
