

Joseph Travers 2/18/80

BRISTOL — Joseph Travers, 62, of 72 Richmond St., a foreman at the Bristol plant of Fulflex, Inc., retiring in 1978, died Friday at the R. I. Hospital after a two-year illness. He was the husband of Carolyn (Martino) Travers.

Born in Bristol, a son of the late John and Margaret (Bernard) Travers, he had been a lifelong resident of Bristol.

Mr. Travers was a communicant of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church and a member of the Cup Defenders Assn. of Bristol.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Roger J. Travers of East Providence and Douglas G. Travers of Bristol; a daughter, Mrs. Brenda Hawksley of Providence; and two sisters, Mrs. Hilda Grandfield of Somerset, Mass., and Mrs. Margaret Lake of Bristol; two brothers, John Travers of Bristol and George Travers of Laurel, Md.; and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 8 a.m. from the Sansone Funeral Home, 192 Wood St., with a Mass of Christian Burial at 9 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, State Street. Burial will be at St. Mary's Cemetery.
