

Joseph Vasconcellos

ANTIOCH, Calif. — Joseph Vasconcellos, 61, of 2820 Vista Way, a former New Bedford, Mass., resident, died Saturday. He was the husband of Mildred (Saurborn) Vasconcellos.

He died at Delta Memorial Hospital in Antioch.

He was born in New Bedford, where he lived for 41 years. He was a bus driver for Union Street Railway Co. in New Bedford for 20 years. He then worked for the Louisiana Pacific Co. of Antioch for 21 years.

Mr. Vasconcellos attended New Bedford schools and was a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Maxine Clodt of Gardnerville, Nev., and Mary Marie Ramey of Portage, Ind.; a son, William Saurborn of Antioch; a brother, Antone of New Bedford; five sisters, Deolinda Correia, Lydia Dupont and Hilda Perreira, all of New Bedford, Mrs. Lee Camara of Cape Coral, Fla., and Natalie Finato of Concord; and seven grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Higgins Funeral Home, A Street.