

WARD — In Fall River, July 4, David A., husband of Pauline M. (Eames) Ward, Plymouth Street, N. Carver, aged 60 years. Memorial services in the First Congregational Church, Rte. 44, N. Carver, Sunday at 2 p.m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. In lieu of flowers, donations to the United Parish Memorial Fund, c/o Rev. Robert Merritt, Carver, Mass., 02330, would be appreciated.

David A. Ward

CARVER — David A. Ward, 60, of Plymouth Street, died Monday after a long illness. He was the husband of Pauline M. (Eames) Ward.

He died at Rose Hawthorn Lathrop Home, Fall River.

Born in Carver, he was the son of C. Olive (Shaw) Ward McKay, and the late Jay A. Ward.

He was a member of First Congregational Church. He was a machinist for Maxim Motors for over 30 years, and was also a cranberry grower. He was a World War II Army veteran.

He served as a deacon and trustee of First Congregational Church, and was a member of the Julian Southworth Post 154 American Legion and the Ocean Spray Cranberry Growers Association.

Survivors include his widow; a son, Mark A. of Madbury, N.H.; a stepson, David W. Parker of North Carver; a stepdaughter, Janet L. Masow of Westford; two brothers, Austin S. and Dana S., both of North Carver; a sister, Phyllis J. Harriman of North Carver, and four grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Egger Funeral Home, 61 Pearl St., Middleboro.