

Kenneth G. Chase

NEW BEDFORD — Kenneth G. Chase, 69, of New Bedford died yesterday after a brief illness. He was the husband of Marion E. (Herlihy) Chase.

He died at St. Luke's Hospital.

He was born in Hyannis and lived in New Bedford most of his life. He was a communicant of St. Kilian Church and worked in various textile mills as a maintenance man until retiring in 1979. He served in the Navy during World War II.

He made unsuccessful bids for a City Council seat in 1977, 1979 and 1981.

Survivors include his widow; a son, Kenneth Soars of New Bedford; a daughter, Barbara Silva of New Bedford; four sisters, Arlene Sylvia, Louise Parks and Isabell Belanger, all of New Bedford, and Jennie McFalls of Ashville, N.C.; three brothers, William, Carlton and Edward, all of New Bedford; and three grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Daniel F. Dwyer Funeral Home, 127 Chestnut St.

8/Jul/1983

Maud E. Winkley, 91

FALL RIVER — Maud E. Winkley, 91, of 1168 Highland Ave., died Thursday. She was the daughter of the late Richard and Mary (Alboston) Winkley.

She died at Charlton Memorial Hospital.

She was employed by the former Hilton's Bakery for 25 years and at Flourde's Bakery until retiring. She was a member of the Union United Methodist Church.

Survivors include several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are by Adams House, Highland Avenue.